

Association of Fish & Wildlife Agencies Waiver of Liability and Release of Claims

COVID-19 SAFETY INFORMATION:

While participating in the Association of Fish and Wildlife Agencies' (AFWA) 2021 Annual Meeting, participants must adhere to the guidelines stated in the Duty of Care received in advance of the Meeting.

Participants are further encouraged to follow CDC guidelines and Rhode Island guidelines including practicing hand hygiene, "social distancing", and wearing face coverings to reduce the risks of exposure to COVID-19. Because COVID-19 is extremely contagious and is spread mainly from person-to-person contact, AFWA's Duty of Care includes preventative measures to reduce the spread of COVID-19. However, AFWA cannot guarantee that Meeting participants, volunteers, partners, or others in attendance will not become infected with COVID-19.

In light of the ongoing spread of COVID-19, individuals who fall within any of the categories below should not engage in AFWA Meeting Events. By attending an AFWA event, you certify that you do not fall into either of the following categories:

1. Individuals who currently or within the past fourteen (14) days have experienced any symptoms associated with COVID-19, which include fever, cough, and shortness of breath among others;
2. Individuals who believe that they may have been exposed to a confirmed or suspected case of COVID-19 or have been diagnosed with COVID-19 and are not yet cleared as non-contagious by state or local public health authorities or the health care team responsible for their treatment.

DUTY TO SELF-MONITOR, REPORT, AND QUARANTINE:

Participants and volunteers agree to self-monitor for signs and symptoms of COVID-19 (symptoms typically include fever, cough, and shortness of breath) and contact John Lord at AFWA at 202-306-7430 if a participant or volunteer experiences one or more symptoms of COVID-19, or receives a positive test for COVID-19, during or within 14 days after participating or volunteering at the Meeting.

Participants and volunteers who experience one or more COVID-19 symptoms at the Meeting agree to remove themselves from conference event spaces and quarantine.

Participants and volunteers who experience one or more COVID-19 symptoms, and/or receive a positive test for COVID-19, during the Meeting or within 14 days of their participation or volunteering at the Meeting, further agree to notify any participants and volunteers with whom they had a close contact (defined by the CDC as being within 6 feet of someone for 15 minutes or more over 24 hours).

Participants and volunteers who are under quarantine should consult with a medical professional to obtain guidance on planning their return travel.
